 &
 MONDAY, JULY 11th - 2 PM

AT THE MAY MEETING

We enjoyed a large turnout on the 2nd of May.....with many members newly returned from the warm and sunny parts of the world. Linda brought us up-to-date on programs planned for later in the season and reported on the impressive shows that filled the galleries during March and April.

Among other major operating decisions concluded and committees reporting.....a hanging committee for the '94 exhibitions was assigned. Donna Gilberto and Rachel Armstrong will co-chair and be assisted by John Hanniford, Bill Babcock, Susan VanWinkle, and Bill Kusche.

ARTISTS AT WORK

At the Rose Farm Gallery in East Haddam, HELEN SCHINK is showing oils and acrylics through the month of May.....getting ready to relocate in Arizona, AL VETROMILE continues to have paintings at the Paint Shop Gallery in Old Saybrook. Call AL, at 388-1843, to inquire about small art materials that are available as he closes his studio.....COGAP, the CoastGuard Art Program established in '81, has selected BILL KUSCHE to contribute an "action" painting to their collection of work which is shown throughout the country.
